She said she was employed as a maid in the home of Raymond Hitchcock, the comedian, in Great Neck L. L., in the summer and fall of 1996. Mr. Chanler lived near by.

During the summer and fall in questiom, the witness said, Mrs. Hitchcock was absent from home nearly all the time, travelling in Europe or visiting in the West. The witness then picked out Mr. Chandler from a seat in the body of the court-room where he was grouped with a number of spectators.
She said he was a frequent visitor at the Hitchcock home.

Mr. Cloud questioned her about a certain Sunday in October. He asked her if Mr. Chanler visited the Hitchcock home on that date.

"His did," said the witness "He came in the morning before lunch. Mr. Hitchcock was out if a said he would wait

Comptroller of the Currency Ridgely said to-day that on Monday, the 11th instant, more than $200,000 was shipped to one New York City bank, and several New York banks have taken out amounts approaching or exceeding $11,000,000 each. The increase in circulation this week is proceeding much more tapidly than last week. In response, to a question as to the amount increased by individual banks the Comptroller declined to give this information, as it has never been the policy of the office to give out a statement of this kind. These figures must be obtained from the banks insmeller.
